Non-Exhaustive List of Eligible Social Finance Activities

Please find below the themes a non-exhaustive list of activities eligible for the ISFA programme, based on the Social Investment Framework by Accelerating Impact and LuxFLAG.

THEMES AND SUB-THEMES

DECENT WORK ACROSS THE VALUE-CHAIN

An activity will be classified as contributing to Decent Work across the Value-Chain if it focuses on:

- access to quality education;
- equitable access to employment, entrepreneurship and remuneration,
- access to rights and protections in work;
- supporting workers in green and just transition.

ADEQUATE LIVING STANDARDS AND WELLBEING

An activity will be classified as contributing to Adequate Living Standards and Wellbeing if it focuses on:

- access to quality healthcare;
- access to affordable housing and energy;
- food security and sustainable food systems;
- access to clean water and sanitation;
- access to safe, affordable convenient and effective financial services;
- access to affordable and functional economic infrastructure.

INCLUSIVE AND SUSTAINABLE COMMUNITIES

An activity will be classified as contributing to Inclusive and Sustainable Communities if it focuses on:

- social inclusion, diversity and gender equality;
- access to social services and support;
- access to and preservation of culture.

DISCLAIMER

Accelerating Impact reserves the right to update this document at any time. Accelerating Impact has final authority in case any conflicts arise between this document and any other classification systems, taxonomies, or policies.

Non-Exhaustive List of Eligible Activities

The indicative list of activities eligible for classification as Decent Work across the Value-Chain, Adequate Living Standards and Wellbeing, and Inclusive and Sustainable Communities, based on the Social Investment Framework by Accelerating Impact and LuxFLAG. Other internationally and/or regionally agreed classification systems and taxonomies around social finance are also acceptable, so long as they are explicitly referenced. Please note that some of these activities might be subject to exclusionary criteria

Theme	Sub-Theme	Example Activities
1. Decent work across the value-chain	1.1 Access to quality education to quality education	▪ Access to primary and secondary education ▪ Access to post-secondary, tertiary and vocational training ▪ Access to lifelong learning ▪ Extending educational capacities ▪ Improving the quality of the existing educational infrastructure and equipment ▪ In-workplace training
	1.2 Equitable access to employment, entrepreneurship and remuneration	▪ Employment generation and retention initiatives ▪ creating and preserving decent jobs ▪ Support to the SMEs in the event of extreme events (e.g. natural disaster, extreme weather events, public health disaster…) ▪ Access to employment for people who are far removed from it or who live in vulnerable areas ▪ Increasing farmer income share in outgrower schemes and/or ensuring fair and timely payments ▪ Supporting entrepreneurship for marginalized or disadvantaged populations ▪ Access to employee leadership programs for historically marginalized or excluded workers
	1.3 Access to rights and protections in work	▪ Providing grievance mechanisms and prevention of harassment/ discrimination ▪ Health and safety compliance (consideration for dangerous working conditions for contractors)
	1.4 Supporting workers in green and just transition	▪ Creating and preserving decent jobs as part of a just, green transition ▪ Retaining and reskilling workers who have lost work due climate change and/or green transition ▪ Fairly distributing the benefits of biodiversity and natural capital amongst societies and communities

2. Adequate living standards and wellbeing	2.1 Access to quality healthcare	• Developing or distributing healthcare products • Extending healthcare capacities • Improving the quality of the existing healthcare facilities • Healthcare logistics services • Providing access to healthcare services • Providing access to disease prevention and management services • Providing access to mental health services • Providing health education and awareness • Technology innovation and promotion of healthcare
	2.2 Access to affordable housing and energy	• Extending the social and affordable housing supply • Providing access to reliable and affordable energy • Improving the quality of the existing social and affordable housing facilities • Facilitating access to housing and ownership
	2.3 Food security and sustainable food systems	• Access to healthy and nutritious and sufficient food supply • Addressing food waste • Supporting farmers • Supporting resilient agriculture production & processing • Supporting resilient agriculture logistics, trade & retail • Supporting innovations on improved agricultural productivity and resilience
	2.4 Access to clean water and sanitation	• Access to good-quality drinking water • Access to sanitation services • Water & sanitation infrastructure development • Water & sanitation infrastructure maintenance • Access to menstrual hygiene products • Access to WASH education and awareness
	2.5 Access to safe, affordable convenient and effective financial services	• Access to banking services (bank accounts, savings, credit, money transfers, etc.) • Access to insurance services • Access to pension • Promoting financial literacy
	2.6 Access to affordable and functional economic infrastructure	• Access to transport • Facilitating and supporting mobility • Access to telecommunications • Access to internet and digital infrastructure • Access to electricity for vulnerable or remote populations • Access to clean cooking

		▪ Access to green and public spaces
3. Inclusive and sustainable communities	3.1 Social inclusion, diversity and gender equality	▪ Inclusion of people with disabilities ▪ Addressing recognised gender gaps in communities and society ▪ Having a transformative impact on gender equality and time savings for women (e.g. design features of mobility projects, access to finance for female entrepreneurs) ▪ Reducing inequalities of previously excluded or marginalized groups ▪ Addressing and promoting human rights ▪ National and international solidarity organisations working in the humanitarian field or for the common good.
	3.2 Access to social services & support	▪ Access to childcare services ▪ Access to caregiving services ▪ Access to support services for children ▪ Assistance and/or adaptation for elderly or differently abled individuals ▪ Access to long-term care ▪ Access to social services for all, including marginalized or vulnerable populations
	3.3 Access to and preservation of culture	▪ Preservation of cultural heritage ▪ Supporting culture and the arts ▪ Reducing cultural inequalities